National

- ▶ Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. Mourns the Passing of Our Honorary Member Nomzamo Winnie Madikizela-Mandela on April 2, 2018.
- ▶ World Health Day was April 7th; Grand Chapter is encouraging chapters to host workshops, initiate digital forums/webinars, create social media campaigns on approved platforms, and execute other events during 2018-2019 geared toward brown communities and countries. Chapters may consider facilitating impactful community chats, initiating awareness campaigns, and encouraging your local and state media outlets to run brief media spots in order to increase understanding about universal health coverage and its effects nationally and globally. We want you to rally your communities; connect and collaborate with other groups and organizations that are engaged in the movement towards universal health coverage; and shift the conversation from designing health systems around diseases and institutions towards health services designed around and for people.
- ▶ FINANCIAL FORTITUDE CALENDAR April is officially recognized in the United States as National Financial Literacy month, a time when heightened awareness is placed on financial literacy education. The National Program Planning and Development Committee has developed the Financial Fortitude Month calendar, a 30-day calendar that includes strategies and tips about financial health, wellness, debt reduction and building wealth to support building a secure financial future. (email sent 4/9)

Action Item:

- ▶ The Reclamation Project
“Calling all Deltas to the floor!! We got some here, and we need some more!”
- ▶ The Reclamation Project is a subcommittee of the National Membership Services Committee. Over the next two years, they will be working to create innovative and sustainable initiatives with individual Sorors, through chapter, regional, and national initiatives to achieve our reclamation goal. Our immediate goal is to reclaim 4,000 members by June 30, 2018, and we need your help to be successful!
- ▶ During the events we have coming up especially during May Week we can invite Sorors and use the #Reclaim4k hashtag on our social media posts.
- ▶ The Mighty Midwest, Each One Reach one initiatives also include a monthly Call-A-Thon during the 4th week of each month where either the Membership committee, chapter or designated Sorors commit to spend 1 hour contacting inactive Sorors inviting them back into the sisterhood.
- ▶ Please let me know if you are interested in participating this month. We can do it from our homes during an available hour of your time on Wednesday April 25th. I would just need you to send me the number of Sorors you were able to reach out to during that time. For those who participate, please feel free to utilize the attached script as a talking point during your calls if you need it.

Call to Conference:

- ▶ We have a sign-up sheet that questions if you are going to the Midwest Regional Conference and if so, how are you getting there? Please make sure to let us know your mode of transportation.
- ▶ Midwest Regional Conference Community Service:
- ▶ The Cincinnati chapters would like to help the Cincinnati Union Bethel, the longest-running social service agency in the Midwest and in Cincinnati by collecting personal care items for women victims of human trafficking and sexual exploitation.
- ▶ Items include the following:
 - Full-sized personal care items
 - New undergarments
 - Cleaning supplies
 - Socks
 - Sheets
 - Gift cards to stores like Walmart, Target, Kroger, Family Dollar etc.
- ▶ We will collect items at all E-board and chapter meetings through the end of the Sorority year and will take our chapter donations to the conference.

Care and Concern:

- ▶ Please keep Soror Meri Harper and her mother, Soror Phyllis Lyons in your prayers. Soror Phyllis suffered a stroke recently and is going through recovery stages.
