- ▶ World Health Day was April 7th; Grand Chapter is encouraging chapters to host workshops, initiate digital forums/webinars, create social media campaigns on approved platforms, and execute other events during 2018-2019 geared toward brown communities and countries. Chapters may consider facilitating impactful community chats, initiating awareness campaigns, and encouraging your local and state media outlets to run brief media spots in order to increase understanding about universal health coverage and its effects nationally and globally. We want you to rally your communities; connect and collaborate with other groups and organizations that are engaged in the movement towards universal health coverage; and shift the conversation from designing health systems around diseases and institutions towards health services designed around and for people.
- ▶ FINANCIAL FORTITUDE CALENDAR April is officially recognized in the United States as National Financial Literacy month, a time when heightened awareness is placed on financial literacy education. The National Program Planning and Development Committee has developed the Financial Fortitude Month calendar, a 30-day calendar that includes strategies and tips about financial health, wellness, debt reduction and building wealth to support building a secure financial future. Action Items:

Message blast reminder.

- ▶ This is a reminder that the Dial My calls system that we use now to send a voice broadcast to the chapter comes under this number: 833-422-1959. Please save this number to your contacts under “IAC Main Line” so you know that it’s the chapter calling you and not a bill collector. ☺
- ▶ It detects voice mail and will leave a message for you if you miss the call.
- ▶ It will also send you an email with the same recorded message. It does not send the email in text form like the old system. You have to click the “play” button in email to hear the message.
- ▶ We are in the process of adding sorors to the system as dues are paid so you won’t have to wait until the fall to start receiving chapter messages.
